2-AA Tie Eagles In Last-Gasp Cage Win

BY JOHN SHIELDS

A near-capacity crowd watched Canyon win a pair of one point victories over two invading Floydada clubs Tuesday in a thrilling, photo-finish to each contest.

The Eagles took the night cap by squeaking past the Whirlwinds, 63-62. Canyon's girls had just as much trouble in nudging the Whirlwinds, 42-41.

Both of the Floydada clubs were undefeated in District 2-AA action with 3-0 records going into the game.

Coach Allen Simpson's Eagles moved back into the thick of the league chase and a two way tie with Floydada for first place in the standings.

Canyon finished the first round of league play with a 3-1 mark. Floydada has the identical 3-1 record. Abernathy and Tulia are 2-2 and Lockney 0-4. The Eagles have racked up a 20-8 mark this season.

The lone setback suffered by Canyon in league play was to upset-minded Abernathy, 42-39.

Canyon is attempting to cop its second consecutive conference crown. It made it to the state finals last season for the first time in history before dropping a close decision to Buna, 47-41. This will be the final season for Canyon to compete in class AA. The Eagles move up to rough District I-AAA next season.

In the other 2-AA battle Tuesday, Tulia downed Abernathy, 50-44.

PAY THAT poll tax now! Bill Money, Randall County tax assessor-collector, urges every voter to ballot in every political race in 1964. This can be done only by paying the $1.75 tax, or obtaining an over-age exemption when necessary, by midnight Friday. A "free" voting certificate will be good only for contests involving candidates for federal office.

Free List In Federal Elections

A voting certificate good only in U. S. congressional, senatorial, presidential and vice-presidential elections will be issued here without charge to applicants who were less than 60 years old as of Jan. 1, have not yet paid a 1963 poll tax, and are otherwise eligible to vote in Randall County, according to Bill Money, county tax assessor-collector.

However, Money joins other local and state leaders in urging that every voter pay his poll tax, regardless of the new Federal constitutional amendment.

"Why bar yourself from voting in local and state contests, just because you can vote in congressional and presidential contests for nothing?" he said. "Why take a chance on changing your mind about local issues after it's too late? Pay your poll tax now, and you'll get a receipt that's good in all elections, local, state and national in 1964."

The free receipts will become available for a period of 30 days after the U. S. administrator of public services publishes a certificate declaring that the amendment which abolishes the poll tax in federal elections has become a part of the U. S. Constitution. The administrator is expected to publish the certificate within a few days, Money said.

The free receipts cannot be used in city, county, state or school elections, or in special elections not involving a candidate for federal office. To participate in these elections the voter must pay a poll tax before deadline at midnight Friday. If he is 60 years old as of last Jan. 1 and votes in a city of 10,000 or more population, he must obtain an exemption certificate before the Friday deadline. This applies specifically to Randall County residents of 60 or over who live or vote in South Amarillo.

The paid poll tax receipt or the exemption certificate may be used in all elections, including those involving candidates for federal office.

Together with other tax collectors in Texas, Money received Monday a set of special instructions from Robert S. Calvert, comptroller of public accounts, with regard to the new procedure.

The instructions note that with the recent action of the (See POLL TAXES, Page 8)

Friday Deadline For Taxes

Deadline for payment of 1963 city, county and school district taxes without penalty and interest is Friday.

City taxes may be paid at City Hall until 5 p.m. Friday, says Dewey Bryant. If paid by mail, the envelope must be postmarked not later than midnight Friday in order to avoid penalty. As of Wednesday, about 84 percent of the city tax roll of $157,149.82 had been collected.

Current school district taxes fall delinquent Feb. 1, says Lee Foster, assessor-collector.

County taxes may be paid at the tax office in Randall County courthouse until 5 p.m. Friday, or by mail postmarked not later than midnight, according to Bill Money, county tax collector.

WT Classes Start Again On Monday

Registration for the spring semester at West Texas State University began Tuesday night with enrollment for night classes.

Freshmen began enrolling Wednesday at 8 a.m. in the Student Union Building.

Upperclassmen begin registering today (Thursday) and complete enrollment Friday morning.

Classes resume Monday, Feb. 3.

Doughboy Memorial Settling

Randall County commissioners have decided to lend a hand to Johnny Doughboy.

Perturbed by the uneven settling of the World War I memorial statue on the northwest corner of the courthouse lawn, the commissioners Monday instructed B. R. Jones, commissioner of Precinct 1, to consult with a monument firm in order to determine what can be done to reset the memorial.

The weighty bronze statue of a doughboy with rifle, grenade and full battle kit was purchased by popular subscription and dedicated by the American Legion Auxiliary of Palo Duro Post 97 in 1923.

The memorial is dedicated to Randall County men who gave their lives in the First World War.

Cost of the memorial and the concrete foundation is estimated at approximately $1,500.

Drama Opening Postponed

Opening of the amphitheater in Palo Duro Canyon State Park has been rescheduled for the summer of 1965, according to Mrs. Ples Harper, president of the Panhandle Heritage Foundation.

Mrs. Harper told some 50 persons attending the annual meeting of the foundation that board members had decided to postpone the opening for a year. A Paul Green production was scheduled to be held in the outdoor theater this summer.

Board members decided to make the change in the opening date in order to raise additional needed funds, Mrs. Harper said.

Three budgets were submitted at the Sunday afternoon meeting held in the Fine Arts Building on the West Texas State University campus. Mrs. Harper explained the first budget was for a small production. It could be produced as soon as $50,000 in underwriting or advance ticket sales was available.

She continued to point out that the foundation will have $35,000 on hand by the first of April from uncommitted donations. Most of the plays written by Green have averaged an income of more than $90,000 through the years. The needed $50,000 is within the reach of the foundation, with present donations and the prospective ticket sales, Mrs. Harper said.

The second budget submitted was for a production on the scale of other Green dramas. It will allow for the finishing of one dressings room and elaborate lighting. The foundation would need to raise $110,000 and $65,000 of it could be in underwriting, according to Mrs. Harper. This "moderate" production would require a minimum of $225,000.

The final play would cost $285,000. The production would require $160,000 more than is available at the present time. $75,000 of it could be in underwriting. Plans include the use of automated light and sound, which are new techniques in outdoor theaters.

Financing for each of the three productions will depend on underwriting, private individuals, ticket sales, donations from the state and other groups. Construction of the theater and seating facilities have been completed in the canyon. Dr. Crannell Tolliver, head of the speech department at WT, discussed the combined box office and rest room building which was provided by the state of Texas.

"It is a building to be proud of," Tolliver said. "It is another step forward and a very important step at that," he said in describing the building.

Highlight of the Sunday meeting was a demonstration by Jon Pitts, president of the WT art fraternity Kappa Pi, and Don Ray, faculty sponsor of the fraternity. The two men showed how plaques for an exterior wall of the theater would be made from clay and photoengraved plates.

The plates will be placed on the clay and the design will be pressed onto the clay plaque. The plaque will be baked and then will be mounted in the memorial building wall.

Plaque designs were chosen from a group made by area junior high and high school students. The best designs were picked and metal plates were made from the original design.

Dr. Emilio Caballero, head of the WT art department, explained to the group the permanence and beauty of clay. He told them that it was because of the permanence of clay that it was chosen for the plaques.

Plans were discussed for the construction of a memorial building at the theater entrance. (See DRAMA, Page 8)

ARTIST OF the Hale County plaque to appear on a wall at the amphitheater in Palo Duro Canyon was at the annual membership meeting of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation Sunday on the West Texas State University campus. Jerry LaGrone, treasurer of the foundation, Melvin Stegall, sophomore at Plainview High School and artist of the design, Don Ray, art professor at WT, and Jon Pitts, president of the art fraternity Kappa Pi, study how the design will be imprinted on a clay plaque and later baked.

Hilltop Views

Continuing last week's discussion of school "drop-outs"—their causes, results, and how to reduce them—we quote again from Dr. Dale.

"Our Life Management Curriculum would help youngsters learn how to work closer to the upper limits of their emotional, mental, and physical powers. Many people, young and old, have not tapped their inner resources; they go through life with their brakes on, suffering from remediable emotional handicaps."

At this point Dr. Dale quotes from The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, as follows.

"...almost 50 per cent of all people seeking medical attention today are suffering from ailments brought about or made worse by such emotional factors as prolonged worry, anxiety or fear. Emotional tension often play a prominent role in certain kinds of heart and circulatory disorders, especially high blood pressure; digestive ailments, such as peptic ulcer and colitis; headache and joint and muscular pains; skin disorders; and some allergies."

It is the opinion of this column that if and when we learn to take good care of body and mind and have the will to do it there will be many happy and useful people living past-perhaps far past-the century mark. Our trouble today is that too many of us are like the woman who, when asked if she were going to quit cigarettes replied, "No! I would rather live 10 years with cigarettes than 20 without them." A bigger per cent of us are slaves to our appetites. Youngsters should be taught convincingly that such slavery stands in the way of their most brilliant prospects. Self-mastery is one of the ingredients of truly successful living. Our schools, like our homes and our churches, can do much to instill this virtue in our young people. The welfare of our country demands that they do it.

Speaking further to the point of emotional health Dr. Dale asserts that "students need to become aware of the many unrelenting pressures to get them to consume, to buy on impulse, to open a charge account. We should expect them to study advertising and to become sensitive about the values appealed to. What appeals, for example, are made to get them to smoke cigarettes or consume liquor? Why do college publications or network programs promote lung cancer by accepting cigarette advertising?" And another question is equally relevant: Why do we permit those same agencies to promote murder, divorce, orphans, drunken driving and other evils with their eternal, flamboyant deceptive advertising and propaganda? Intoxicants kill more people than war and ruin the lives of millions more. The effort of schools and some churches to teach temperance to our children is largely defeated by newspaper and network advertising, liquor lobbyists, and respected Christian citizens who have been effectively brain-washed.

Dr. Dale discusses several other factors in education for the good life, such as teaching youth to make wise choices in such areas as selecting a vocation or profession, selection of a mate, the use of money, the use of time, the choice of associates, etc. He thinks that his proposed Life Management Curriculum would be helpful in all these facets of education.

He touches only indirectly upon what this writer believes is an important function of education -- that of arousing wholesome ambitions, stimulating the desire for noble achievement and cultivating self-respect, self-knowledge, and self-control. Many people drag out a mediocre life without ever realizing that nature endowed them with tremendous potential. If youngsters while in school could be made to catch the gleam of true success their lives would be much happier and more useful and society would be much richer. It is the firm conviction of this column that an adequate supply of well educated, resourceful, and dedicated teachers is the solution of this most important problem.

North Randall County Cub Scouts seem to have a monopoly on the "Cubby" award this season.

Dens 3 and 6 have received the award at each pack meeting for Pack 97, so far this season. The award is given for having the largest percentage at the monthly pack meeting.

Congratulations boys! Now don't get lazy just because we've complimented you--and lose it to another Den.

Team Of The Month

Happy Cowgirls, coached by Bill Tennyson, have been named team of the month by members of the Texas High School Girls Basketball Coaches Association. The team presently has a record of 22-5. Last year they won district championship.

We laid the law down in our singly occupied household this week when we moved.

Never again will we submit ourselves to such misery. Everyone who has moved knows the obstacles involved in changing residences.

Our prescription for those who must make those uncontrollable changes is as follows:

1. Begin late in the evening after you have put in a full day's work.

2. Spend three days boxing, crating and loading the car and then spend three days getting it from one location to the other.

3. Of course this way you are required to spend your days in the new house and your nights in the old one because the food is in one spot and the bedding is in the other.

4. Try to find your old friends who suddenly become scarce after you mentioned you were moving.

5. And the final one, well of course it has to be...don't get discouraged too quickly. You are bound to think living in a car might be simpler. But really, it's just not done in our present day society. And besides, you have this to look forward to, your wife may not feel the urge to move again for a few months.

Contact lens can lead to humorous situations, and tales are told constantly of strange predicaments wearers of the small, almost invisible objects get themselves into.

One woman walked meekly into her eye doctor's office just a few days after she had received them. The doctor was surprised to see her so distraught and quickly asked her to explain the situation. After a hesitant sigh, the woman confessed, "My three-year old girl ate them."

After the first 'teary' weeks, a new contact wearer realizes he has accomplished great things. For instance, few people can spend four weeks continuously crying about nothing.

And a devoted contact lens enthusiast is able to outblink anyone on the block.

Mrs. Paulsen Visits Here

Mrs. Arne Paulsen of Oslo, Norway is in Canyon this week visiting with her niece's family, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Aplin.

Mrs. Paulsen had spent several weeks on the west coast visiting with other relatives before her arrival in Canyon last week. She plans to continue her travels across the United States beginning Saturday when she will leave for New York to visit with her aunt before returning to Norway.

Arne Paulsen visited with the Aplin family for a few days during the recent Christmas holidays. Also visiting in the Aplin home during Paulsen's visit were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Paulsen of Oregon, parents of Mrs. Aplin.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

For the first time in years, the unreserved seat section at the Field House was sold out Saturday night.

The occasion was a basketball game between the Buffs and nationally ranked Texas Western. Some kids who had been used to paying 50 cents for a ticket were tapped for $1.50. Some youngsters, financially embarrassed, may even have been turned away.

An unfortunate situation like this is bound to create some ill will. We hope the public will be lenient this time.

News media and the office of the athletic director goofed. With a nationally ranked team appearing here, we should have been able to forecast a big turnout.

Had we done a little crystal ball gazing we could have asked the athletic director to issue a statement warning the public that only a limited number of unreserved seats would be available on a first come, first served basis.

Our only excuse is that based on previous attendance we simply did not expect the box office that materialized Saturday night.

We just hope there were no cases Saturday night where a youngster was dropped off at the Field House with 75 cents and who then was unable to get into the game for lack of funds.

Anyway, we're glad attendance at our basketball games is good enough again to bring on problems of this nature.

Public relations by intimidation is tried by a few. It seldom works. A man who must bolster his courage by yelling at others simply advertises the fact that he is not overly endowed with this noble virtue.

Charles Donnell is approaching his job as Canyon Chamber of Commerce president with the attitude of a man who intends to get something done. Charles has spent the past two weeks studying the needs of the community and talking to Chamber of Commerce members.

He is coming up with some definite goals for the year. We think he will see some of them accomplished.

We attended a meeting of doctors and newspaper people in Amarillo Thursday night of last week as a guest of Dr. Charles Nester. We found that doctors are about like newspaper people.

When news people take off a few hours to get together for a little relaxation they invariably talk about newspapering. Doctors, we learned, get together and talk about medicine.

Don Yarborough, liberal Democrat and friend of Ralph Yarborough, has announced for governor in opposition to John Connally. This should liven up Texas politics a little.

Connally is, of course, a friend of Lyndon Johnson.

Yarborough was in a run off with Connally in 1962. We can't help wondering how the Don Yarborough announcement will affect--if any--the current hat-chet burying project being carried on by Ralph Yarborough and the President.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton Lisle and daughter, Julie, made a week-end trip to Tucson, Arizona recently.

They were accompanied by Mrs. Lisle's sister, Mrs. Will Lene and children, Amy, Angie and Willy, who had spent several weeks in Canyon visiting with the Lisle family. The Lenes live in Phoenix.

Janet Blackaby underwent surgery Monday in an Oklahoma City hospital. Miss Blackaby and her mother, Mrs. Bruce Blackaby, were returning from a visit in Tulsa when Miss Blackaby was stricken with appendicitis.

MR. & MRS. S.L. ROBINSON

SCOTTIE PIERCE (52) of West Texas State is hemmed in by Texas Western's Jim (Bad News) Barnes (45) in action Saturday at Buffalo Fieldhouse. Bob Dabler (11) moves in to help. Texas Western won the tilt by tripping the Buffs, 61-53.

Buff's Defense Works Hard But Lose, 61-53

The West Texas State Buffs came out on the short end of the stick in more ways than one Saturday in Buffalo Fieldhouse. Texas Western, ranked eleventh in the nation, proved superior in only one phase of the game while taking a 61-53 win, however. That was in scoring. The Miners of El Paso put up 36 gratis tosses and made 25. West Texas had the opportunity to attempt only 13 free throws, dropping in nine. Free throws were more than the difference in the contest.

The Buffs outscored the visitors from the floor 22-18. West Texas was charged with 24 personals while heralded Jim (Bad News) Barnes and his teammates received only 12. Barnes, a 6-8, 240 pounder, evidently received his nickname from his vile temper, displayed more than once in the game. He had been clipping the nets at better than 30 points a game coming into the contest. But a stiff defense held him to 21 points.

In an earlier meeting of the clubs Barnes made 40 points. Texas Western won that meeting, 84-66.

West Texas still leads in overall victories, 25-20. Texas Western, noted for its rebounding and near the top in the nation, found the going tough against the Buffs. The count was knotted in that category, 36-36.

The Miners found the Buff defense hard to cope with. The Buffs found themselves in a similar situation as they were forced to shoot the long shots throughout the game.

It would probably have to be considered the best defensive effort produced by the Buffs this season.

Individuals turning in excellent defensive performances were Gail Simpson, Kirby Pugh, James Strahan, Marvin Mitchell and Scottie Pierce.

Texas Western jumped to an early lead at the outset of the game. But West Texas battled back and took a 6-5 lead for the first time at 15:54. Barnes tied the count seconds later.

The Buffs held a 10-6 lead at 14:22. After the Miners knotted the score at 10-all with 11:53 remaining to be played in the first half, the Buffs trailed from there until the end of the contest.

With 3:17 left in the half the Miners took a 14 point lead--their largest in the tilt--27-13. At halftime Texas Western led by nine points, 30-21.

Texas Western had made 16 of 20 free throws at halftime. The Buffs had made three of five attempts from the charity line.

The margin stayed at nine points most of the second half. At 4:03 the Buffs cut it to six points, 49-43, to come as close as they were to get.

Marvin Mitchell kept the Buffs in the contest with his 20 to 30 feet jump shots in the second half. He dropped in 10 points on these shots in the opening minutes.

The Buffs received another big blow when Pugh fouled out with 7:15 left on the clock.

But he was replaced by Joe McWilliams who took over and popped the nets for nine points. Mitchell paced the Buffs with 15 points. Pierce and Pugh had 10 each, McWilliams 9, George Scott 6 and Frank Schaffer 3.

Pierce and Pugh led the Buffs in rebounds with eight each. Barnes was high for Texas Western with 21 points and 12 rebounds.

West Texas made 20 of 55 attempted field goals for 40 per cent. Texas Western made 18 of 42 for 42.8 per cent.

Coach Jimmy Viramontes' Buffs will carry a 7-7 mark into the rematch with Hardin-Simmons at Abilene Feb. 1. West Texas won the meeting here, 56-55.

Oilers Sign Hoot Gibson

Former West Texas State University quarterback David "Hoot" Gibson has informed the Canyon News of his signing with the Houston Oilers of the American Football League.

Six members of the 1963 Buffaloes have inked pacts with pro football clubs.

The others have been John Varnell, Houston Oilers; Jack Mayfield, St. Louis Cardinals; Jerry Richardson, Los Angeles Rams; Pete Pedro, Boston Patriots; and Ollie Ross, San Francisco '49ers.

Gibson played defense for three seasons and was moved up to offensive quarterback last season after Jim (Corky) Dawson graduated.

Houston will probably use Gibson entirely on defense.

Last season Gibson hurled 56 aeriels, completed 28 for 449 yards and 50 per cent. He was injured late in the season and was operated on for a shoulder separation, causing him to miss the final three games.

WT Cagers Face Cowboys Saturday

BY JOHN SHIELDS

The West Texas State Buffaloes will have to play their best to notch a second win over Hardin-Simmons' Cowboys Saturday at Abilene--even that may not be good enough.

West Texas will carry a 7-7 mark into the game.

The Buffs will entertain Eastern New Mexico University Monday at 8 p.m. in Buffalo Fieldhouse. Freshmen squads will battle in the preliminary at 6 p.m.

In the last Buffaloes-Cowboys clash, West Texas was forced to overcome a 31-17 halftime deficit in downing the stubborn Cowboys. But coach Jimmy Viramontes accomplished the task by dropping in 16 of 19 field goal attempts the second half.

West Texas defeated Eastern New Mexico Friday at Portales, 87-72. Halftime score was 38-11.

Marvin Mitchell took over the scoring lead for West Texas with his 15 point performance against Texas Western Saturday. He is rolling along at a 12.7 average per game. Mitchell has sank 76 of 169 attempted field goals and 26 of 58 free throws. He is third in rebounding with a 5.9 average.

Scottie Pierce made a valiant effort to take over the lead by dumping 40 points in the two weekend contests. He is third with a 12.2 average. James Strahan is second with a 12.4 average per game.

Strahan and Pierce are also one-two in accuracy from the field. Strahan has connected on 66 of 123 tries for 53.7 per cent while Pierce has made 72 of 129 attempts.

Kirby Pugh is the only other Buff scoring in double figures with a 10.6 mark.

Frank Schaffer is 9.1, Joe McWilliams and Gail Simpson 5.4; David Shearod 4.9, George Scott 4.0 and Dal Burrows 2.0.

Mitchell and Pierce are tied for high game honors with 30 point performances.

The West Texas shooting average, ranked third in the nation last week, will probably take a drop after last weekend. The Buffs were shooting with 50.2 accuracy before the weekend tilts. It is now 49.3.

Pierce is leading the team in rebounds with 9.1 per contest.

Coach Viramontes stated after the Texas Western contest, "I was real pleased with our boys. They had big odds and bowed according to those odds. We showed definite improvement on poise and stamina. Texas Western has a real fine ball club. They worked very diligently to get the ball to Jim Barnes. They did a good job of it, too. I think that regardless of the outcome it was a pretty good brand of ball to watch. Our defense is improving and our boys are beginning to believe in themselves."

Pedro Weds In Pampa

Pete Pedro and an Amarillo girl, Gloria Jean Quintero, were married at Pampa Friday, according to an area newspaper.

Pedro gained national fame in his three seasons as a halfback at West Texas State University.

In his sophomore season --1961--at WTSU Pedro paced the nation in scoring. He finished second in rushing yardage. In 1962 he was sixth among the major college players in rushing.

Pedro was injured at some time during all three seasons at West Texas. He finished second among Buff runners last season with 360 yards although he played only two and one half games.

The Lynn, Mass. native has inked a pro football contract with the Boston Patriots of the American Football League.

Pedro is scheduled to play in Buffalo Bowl for the last time April 10 when the Alumni meet the 1964 Buffaloes in an annual affair.

Howard White Resigns, John Roberts Hired

Howard White has resigned as backfield coach for the West Texas State Buffaloes to accept a similar position at the University of California at Berkeley.

He is being replaced by John Roberts. Roberts was a WTSU assistant coach in 1960 and 1961.

Coach White left this week for Berkeley. Mrs. White and children will join him in a few days. He is slated to report for work with Coach Ray Wilsey Feb. 1.

Roberts will join the WT staff the same day.

Roberts is a former Texas Tech quarterback from Stillwater, Okla. He was head coach at Cammer, Tex., before going to Stillwater as an assistant coach last year.

Coach White is a native of California having grown up at Escondido. He was a grid stand-out at Escondido High School before the war.

He played football at Riverside Junior College and then attended the University of Southern California where he received his BS and MS degrees.

Howard went to La Jolla, Cal., as line coach and baseball coach in 1948 shortly after being graduated from college. He was there four years before being recalled to his old hometown as head coach.

He was head coach at Escondido a year and had a 6-3 record.

White then got a "golden opportunity." He was offered the job of head coach at Riverside in a high school of 4,000 enrollment.

The football fortunes of the school were on the rocks. His first year there his team posted a 6-3 record--the best season in 10 years.

During his second year at that school the season record was 8-2.

In his third year at Riverside, the team had a 11-0-1 record.

In four years at Riverside High School his team won three consecutive championships and went to the play offs. His record at Riverside was 33 wins, 7 losses and a tie.

Top Lineman Quits Buffs

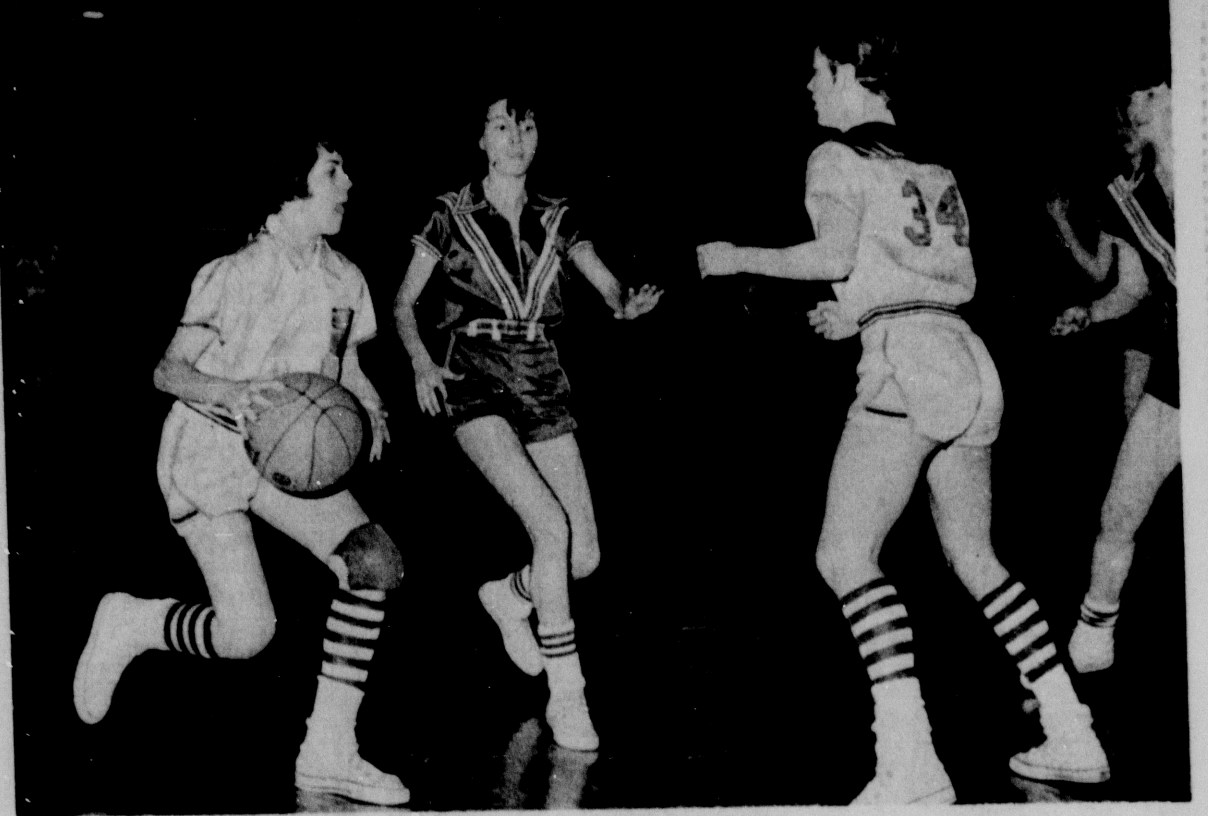

Guard Willie Thompson has left West Texas State University.

Thompson played a great deal last season for the Buffs and would probably have received a starting berth next season had he stayed.

The Reading, Pennsylvania native, a junior, made a statement before leaving. He said, "I feel leaving West Texas State will hurt me. I have developed a fondness for coach Joe Kerbel and his staff, and also for the football program here. I must however, be closer to my family and therefore must leave school at this time."

"We sure hate to see Willie go. He is a 150 per cent football player and a fine young man. He is a real hustler and he made a fine contribution to our football program. We understand, but we will miss him," coach Kerbel stated.

JACK HUGHES, head of the WTSU geology department, inspects site where road grader turned up prehistoric fossils near spur road that skirts campus. Inset shows some of fossil fragments as measured against leg and foot bones of modern horse. Hughes points out that area has been "horse country" since long before dawn of recorded history.

Road Blader Uncovers Bone Find Near WT

BY FRED TRIPP

For the historian, the past is seldom more than a couple of thousand years ago, but sometimes as far as half the world away. For the paleontologist, it can be a million or more years ago, yet no farther away than the bite of a spade.

For the proof, consult Jack Hughes, head of the geology department at West Texas State University and curator of archaeology and paleontology for the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

During the decade or so that Hughes has been associated with WT, he and his students have made a cumulative, major contribution to man's knowledge of the prehistory of the Plains. They have searched out bones, fossils and artifacts in building excavations and railroad cuts, in the walls and floors of ravines, in other likely spots, however difficult of access. Until last week, however, it had remained for pure chance to take some of the sweat out of research.

Trundling along the shoulder of the spur road that skirts the northeast edge of the WT campus between U. S. 87 and the Palo Duro Park road, a grader casually turned up a trove of distinctive, fossilized remains of perhaps two varieties of the prehistoric horse.

Returned to air and sunlight after 800,000 years, the find lay unnoticed by passersby until Hughes, with the eye and luck of a professional Pleistocene scrounger, spotted it.

"What gets me," he said, "is that for years I used to live only a couple of blocks away from the site."

Hughes described the find as fragments of the fossilized leg and toe bones of one of the earlier varieties of the modern horse, prehistoric only in the sense that it flourished before the dawn of recorded history. "At that," he said, "it was quite some time ago. Judging from the geological formation in which the fossils were buried, this particular animal might have roamed the region about 700,000 to 800,000 years ago during one of the glacial ages," he said.

The fossils were embedded in a strata of fine-textured clay, similar to fuller's earth and typical of sedimentary deposits found on and near the sites of long-vanished lakes and water chamber office. The machine will handle 500 name plates. Board members also voted to participate in a tourist promotion to encourage tourists at Palo Duro State Park and the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Two slides for both the park and the museum will be shown at the Texas State Fair in Dallas. Short comments explaining the slides will appear with the pictures.

West Texas Chamber of Commerce sponsors the program. Pictures from towns and cities in Texas will also be shown along with the slides from Canyon.

The slides will be shown in a special booth during the state fair.

Bryant said details of the repayment plan have not yet been worked out but that the arrangement would probably be for a period of 36 months.

Involved in the total sum are a number of new street lights and an adjusted power rate for others.

In other business, the commission denied a request to keep livestock inside city limits and authorized a resolution to exempt a tract of land and improvements from city taxes.

The livestock request came from Poole's Farm & Ranch Supply, Inc., on the Hereford highway. The firm sought permission to keep some 35 calves within city limits in connection with a special feeding program.

On the request of Mrs. J. W. Morris, the commission authorized a resolution that will exempt from property taxes the east 50 feet of the southwest quarter of Block 17 in the Heller Addition. The request set forth that the property is used exclusively for church purpose. The resolution will also clear the property from the delinquent tax rolls.

The commission tabled for further study three bids on a three-month supply of gasoline for city use.

Two Canyon Scouts Represent Council

The annual "Report to the State" conference for Boy Scouts will have two Canyon boys among the delegation representing the Llano Estacado Council.

Kenny Crossland and Randy Warren, both of Canyon, and Walter Bradley and Mike Goth, both of Amarillo, will serve as district representatives for the Llano Estacado Council.

Chris Lummus of Dumas will be the official council representative at the convention in Austin, Feb. 8-9. Delegations for 24 council districts of the state will have representatives at the convention.

The local delegation will leave at 4 p.m. Feb. 6 for Austin where they will spend the convention weekend at the Driskill Hotel. They are expected to return to their homes sometime Sunday.

The "report ceremony" will be Saturday morning when official council representatives of each of the 24 districts will give their reports to the Texas House of Representatives.

Lummus will report for the Llano Estacado Council. Other delegation members will be seated on the "house floor" and in the visitors' gallery during the ceremony.

Each council delegation will have an opportunity to meet Texas' governor, John Connally, in his office after the report ceremony for delegation pictures.

The annual Governor's Luncheon will be in the Crystall Ballroom of the Driskill Hotel at 1 p.m. Saturday. Gov. Connally will be a special guest for the occasion.

Poll Taxes

South Dakota legislature, three-fourths of all the states no longer require a poll tax. This automatically validates a constitutional amendment abolishing the poll tax in federal elections throughout the nation.

Calvert's letter emphasizes the new amendment merely abolishes payment of the present $1.75 tax as a voting requirement in elections involving candidates for federal office. Other eligibility requirements are not affected. Throughout Texas, a voter must be at least 21 years old, a resident of the state for a year and a resident of any one county for at least six consecutive months.

The letter does not explain why provision for a 25-cent registration fee—which had been expected in the event of a "free" receipt—is not applicable this year.

Money said the free receipt will be the present receipt form on which the words "Poll Tax Not Paid" will be stamped. This will inform election judges that the bearer of such a receipt can vote only for federal candidates.

He emphasized that persons who have paid their poll taxes for 1964 do not need any additional certification, and should not seek a free receipt.

"This will only lead to duplication and resulting confusion at the polling place," he said.

Money estimated some 7,000 poll taxes had been collected in Randall County through Monday, with four more days before deadline.

Eagles. . .

ans saved the game for Canyon by outjumping an opponent that towered over him by five inches with only seconds left in the contest. He had dumped in a free throw with only 15 seconds remaining for Canyon's final points.

One fan made the understatement of the year after the first half when he said in reference to the Eagles shooting, "That was pretty fair shooting for a high school team."

It would be "fair" shooting for any team after making 18 of 28 attempts from the field for 64 per cent as the Eagles did.

Canyon popped the nets on 25 of 42 tries from the field the entire game for a sizzling 59.5 per cent.

The Eagles made the first half figures even more impressive--due to a stout Floydada defense--by shooting from about 20 or more feet out most of the time.

Canyon also displayed some of its own fine defense, along with poise and sharp ball-handling.

In the first quarter the score was tied only two times, once at 2-2 and again at 6-6. Canyon held the biggest margin in the opening stanza with 21-5 remaining, 13-8. At the end of the period Canyon led, 17-14. From then until halftime the Eagles kept Floydada at bay with their long shots. They held a 10 to 14 point lead most of the stanza.

During the first half Don Breitling sank four shots from 25-30 feet out to help open the Whirlwinds defense. Eddie Poole led Canyon in scoring at intermission with nine points. Breitling had 8.

At halftime Canyon led by 15 points, 41-26. With 3:50 left in the third period Canyon rolled up a 20 point lead, 51-31. But Floydada closed the gap to 55-42 going into the final quarter.

Then came the almost disastrous fourth period for Canyon as Floydada rallied its forces. The Whirlwinds clipped the margin to three points at 57-54 with six minutes left and again at 60-57 with 2:45 remaining to be played. Seconds later the count was 60-59.

With twelve seconds left the count was 63-62.

Evans then won the tip on a jump ball to give Canyon possession.

Evans was high point man for Canyon with 17 points. Poole had 15, Breitling 10, Steve Burgess 8, Jim Whinnery 7 and skip Moore 6.

Burgess led in rebounds with seven. Poole had 6.

Outstanding defensive performances were turned in by Whinnery, Evans, Poole and Breitling.

In the girls game it was nip-and-tuck throughout the contest.

At the end of the first quarter Canyon led, 11-9.

The score was knotted three times during the second period. Andy Lair connected on a hook shot just before the halftime buzzer to give Canyon a three point lead, 22-19.

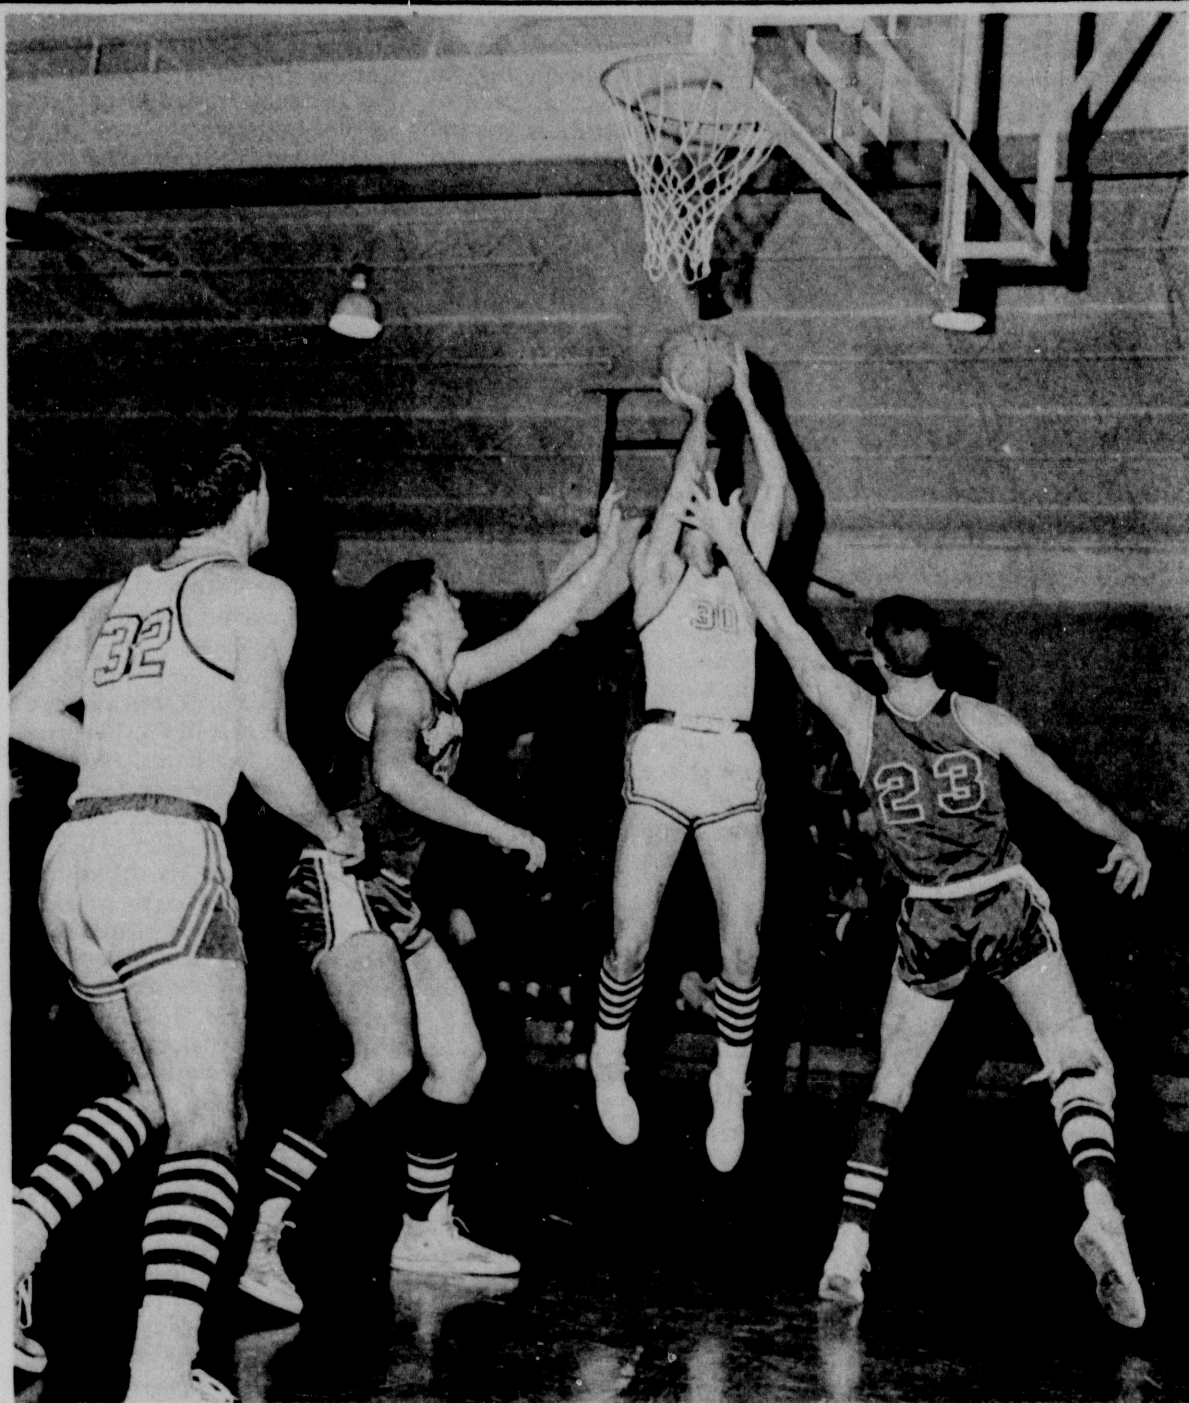

The score was also tied three times during the third quarter. Going into the final period of play the count was 31-31.

Floydada held a five point lead until only 1:15 was left in the final period. Then Canyon held the visitors scoreless for the last three minutes of play.

Andy Lair made the final two points for Canyon with 0:08 left. Lair took high point honors with 18 points. Jan Jarnigan had 17, Cynthia Gerald 5 and Ruth Purcell 2.

Beth Jarrett, Carol Brown, Sherry Killingsworth and Jill Jarnagin turned in outstanding defensive performances.

Tulia will invade Canyon for a rematch Friday at 8:30 p.m. The Varsity girls play at 7:30 p.m. Canyon will host Abernathy Tuesday in the Eagles final home game. Playing times will be the same.

SKIP MOORE (30) goes up for a short jump shot in the Canyon-Floydada tilt Tuesday in the Eagle Gym. Eddie Poole (32) of Canyon

Bell Recalls Days Of Steam Railroading

K. C. MAY, right, superintendent of the Plains Division of the Santa Fe Railway Co., presents a bell from a retired steam locomotive to Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum. Accepting the gift is Boone McClure, right, museum curator, while C. H. Huff, Santa Fe agent at Canyon, looks on. Bell is from Engine No. 1690, a veteran of Plains freight service.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Schickedanz spent the recent weekend at Keyes, Oklahoma visiting with Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Lennington. Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News about it. Telephone OL 5-2141, or stop by the News office on the west side of the square.

Guests in the Van Schickedanz home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Schickedanz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Luthi, and Stanley Schickedanz.

A pizza supper for the junior high fellowship of the First Presbyterian Church was held in Fellowship Hall last Sunday evening.

Approximately 21 members of the youth group were served pizza, salad, desserts and beverages during the supper.

Pat Jarrett served as chairman for the evening program and Jim Cowart presented the Bible Lesson.

Class sponsors are Mrs. Dean Nicholas and Mrs. Bob Olson.

The Christ's Ambassadors of the Assembly of God Church will hold a bake sale at Bellah's Super Market on Saturday, Feb. 1.

Homemade cakes, pies, and cookies will go on sale at 8:30 a.m. according to a spokesman for the church youth organization.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fort last Sunday was Phillip Ray Upchurch of Amarillo Air Force Base.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Walser of Summerfield were guests in the Fort home Tuesday evening of last week.

BY FRED TRIPP

Old 1690 is gone--but not forgotten.

Through the courtesy of the Santa Fe Railway Co., 1690's big brass bell has come to rest in Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, a memento of a time when all the commerce of the prairies moved on the high iron, drawn by steam locomotives that have passed into legend.

Presentation of the bell was made last week by K. C. May of Amarillo, superintendent of the Plains Division of the Santa Fe, and accepted by Boone McClure, museum curator. Attending the ceremony were C. H. Huff, Santa Fe agent at Canyon, Bill Heath, secretary to May, and Herman Hill, of the Santa Fe public relations staff.

"We are happy to present the Panhandle-Plains Museum with this memento of a bygone age, when the old steam locomotive contributed so much to the development of the West," May said.

McClure expressed appreciation for a gift "of extreme interest to the museum because it represents the importance of railroads, and the particular contribution of the Santa Fe, to the developing history and improvement of this region."

"I don't know if you're aware of it," he said, "but there's still a lot of Panhandle people around who used to make the run from Canyon to Kansas City in a caboose hooked on to the train that took their livestock to market. The sound of this bell will recall those times..."

"As for the rest of us, who doesn't remember the engine bell down at the depot in towns all over the Panhandle? It was a regular part of the Panhandle day..."

Gift of the bell came after F. N. Stuppi, Santa Fe general manager at Amarillo, visited the museum here a couple weeks ago.

"He noticed we were a bit deficient in railroad exhibits and said something ought to be done about it," McClure said. "Next thing we knew, the bell had arrived from the Santa Fe warehouse at Topeka."

May said the big brass bells on steam locomotives were removed and stored as engines were taken out of service and replaced by modern diesels. Over the years, he said, the Santa Fe has received numerous requests from organizations and individuals seeking to buy the old bells, but has adopted the settled policy of making gifts of them to museums, churches, church and Boy Scout camps, and schools.

"Now the supply is just about gone," he said.

The brightly polished bell bearing the Santa Fe emblem is 12 inches high, 17 inches in maximum diameter, and weighs about 300 pounds with its cast iron bracket. The tone is resonant, penetrating, and of a pitch characteristic of Santa Fe bells, according to May.

"Back in those days," he said, "each railroad took pride in having a uniform pitch for its bells, and an experienced railroad man could listen to one and tell you which line it represented."

The Canyon bell was originally standard equipment on a type of freight engine that came into service on the Santa Fe about 1912. A photograph of Engine No. 1691, typical of the type, appears in "From Cab to Caboose," a survey of Santa Fe railroading by Joseph A. Noble of Amarillo, retired chief engineer of Santa Fe Western Lines. The photo caption identifies the engine as a Baldwin 2-10-2 with 10 driving wheels of relatively small diameter, "one of the best types of freight power for moderate speeds."

History of the engine from which the Canyon bell was taken is now being researched at Topeka, according to Hill.

For the railroad buff, however, or the Panhandle resident of old times, no detailed history is needed for an appreciation of the Santa Fe gift. All he has to do is go over to the museum and give the old bell a hefty tug. As the reverberation dies away, he'll see a green light and the high iron shining down through all the years.

Youths Select C A Winners

"Mr. and Miss C A" will be selected by a penny-vote contest being sponsored by the Christ's Ambassadors youth group of the Assembly of God Church.

The contest will conclude in May and funds raised by the penny-vote contest will be awarded to the winners to defray expenses for a youth encampment at Roaring Springs this summer.

Seeking the title of Miss CA are Lynn Watson, Sharon Bell and Karen Strohmeier. Don Rogers, Thomas Echols and Loren Young are vying for the masculine title.

SPEED READING COURSE BEGINS FEBRUARY 6 IN CANYON

A course in speed reading and comprehension will be offered to the general public in the Canyon area beginning Thursday, February 6. The course will be held in the Baptist Student Union from 7 to 9:30 each Thursday evening for eight class meetings - a total of 20 hours of formal instruction.

Rudy Horak, the instructor, has taught the course at Amarillo College for the past eight years, in addition to having presented it to the employees of various business firms. The course enables the average student to triple his reading rate and considerably improve his comprehension.

Some of the principles and techniques covered in the course are the following:

1. Freedom from "word by word" reading.
2. The development of a "groupword" reading habit (phrases, clauses, and short sentences) by use of the tachistoscope, a machine which projects groups of words and digits on a screen.
3. Reducing "fixation time" when focusing the eyes on print.
4. Enlarging the vocabulary.
5. Learning to read "actively", and in a critical sense, instead of simply absorbing print.

Registration for the course will be at 7 p.m. Thursday, February 6 in the Baptist Student Union. The first class will be held immediately following registration. The fee is $20.00 per person, and the cost of the textbook is $3.00, payable at the time of registration.

Annexation Rejected In Swisher Vote

Voters in Swisher County have rejected inclusion of an area of approximately 800 square miles in High Plains Water Conservation District No. 1.

The Swisher vote in favor of the annexation proposal was 191 for, 264 against. The accompanying tax proposal was also rejected by a vote of 189 for, 251 against.

Proposed annexation of the area was approved, 660 to 79, by other counties comprising the district. Approval is inapplicable, however, since Swisher rejected the proposal. Committeemen elected to represent Randall County on the district board were Ed Wieck of Umbarger, for Precinct 2, and Lewis Tucek, Rt. 1, Canyon, Precinct 4. Wieck defeated Bernard Hartman and W. A. Patke, a write-in candidate. Tucek defeated E. A. Stocker and Patke.

Results of the election, which was held Jan. 14, were officially announced this week by the Lubbock headquarters of the district.

Robert Price Seeks Nomination

PAMPA--Jan. 29 (Sp 1.) Robert D. (Bob) Price, Gray County farmer and rancher, announced here last night his intentions to seek the nomination of the Republican Party for the position of United States Congressman from the 18th Congressional District.

The 36-year old Pampa declared his candidacy at a coffee meeting attended by more than 100 friends and Republican party officials from throughout the 28-county district. "For the past fourteen years this district has been supposedly represented in Washington by 'the man from Chevy Chase, Maryland' - the incumbent congressman who has consistently misrepresented the people of our great Panhandle. His service has been more that of Maryland's 8th Congressman, rather than of Texas' 18th," Price told the enthusiastic group.

A sabre jet fighter pilot veteran of the Korean War and father of three, Price is engaged in ranching operations in Roberts, Gray, Hutchinson and Carson Counties. Upon returning from the service, he joined with other members of one of the oldest pioneering families in this section of the country in the active operation of their Panhandle holdings. He is a member of the First Baptist Church and immediate Past President of the Kiwanis Club.

Price labelled himself a "conservative Goldwater Republican" advocating a return to a freemarket economy in agriculture, an end to foreign aid to Communist nations and the "so-called neutrals", and a tax cut with a corresponding cut in government spending.

In declaring his philosophy to the gathering Price told them, "Let no one be mistaken, I am a conservative Republican subscribing to the views of the Hon. Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, and I believe that these are the views most held by the citizens of the 18th Congressional District of Texas."

Speaking on the farm issue Price told his audience, "Contrary to the voting record of the incumbent congressman, I believe that the answer to this serious problem lies in less controls not more controls, and a program aimed at returning the agricultural industry to a free market economy, such as is advocated by the American and Texas Farm Bureau."

Addressing himself on the U. S. foreign policy, Price was most critical of the administration. "Many years ago I was told you can't buy friendship with money. After 20 years of sowing billions and billions of American Dollars in this vain attempt we have reaped only retreat and defeat. The time has come for America to take a hard cold look at our foreign aid program. There is absolutely no excuse or reason for any free country to give aid and comfort to any communist dictatorship. As for foreign aid, I believe that American Dollars and American Lives should only be spent in those countries pledged to defend America and her Freedom. For many years we have been subsidizing the communist dictatorships in Yugoslavia, Poland and others, but not since 1945 until this past year has any American administration had the audacity to directly subsidize the murderous dictatorship of the Russian Government. Selling wheat to Russia at below American costs is subsidizing the Russians, and there is no way of getting around a fact as treacherous as that. Any man who would vote for a bill to feed the armies of a country dedicated to the destruction of freedom and liberty is not morally fit to hold an office in this great nation."

Speaking on financial matters, Price commented, "I, as most Americans, feel that the taxation of our citizens and our business community is far too burdensome and would welcome relief from this situation; however, there are many things to be considered when we talk of a tax cut. First we have to realize that the President has just asked Congress to approve an almost 100 Billion Dollar Budget for the fiscal year of 1965. Our national debt has soared to such astronomical figures that it is completely incomprehensible to the human brain. The country currently owes over 300 Billion Dollars, the interest on which alone cost the taxpayers over 10 Billion Dollars a year. Every child born in this country today owes a debt of almost $1800.00 to his government before he can ever drink milk out of a bottle. The national tax for 1965 will amount to almost $500.00 for every man, woman and child in the U.S. A tax cut would be a welcome breath of fresh air, and as Congressman I would eagerly vote for any tax cut that would be proposed with a corresponding budget cut and providing that that budget would also propose honest intentions of retiring the national debt rather than promoting it. Any other vote would be a disservice to ourselves, our children, and generations of Americans as yet unborn."

In pledging himself to an all out campaign Price told the enthusiastic crowd that he would dedicate his efforts and his time to the job confronting him. In challenging those present Price said, "This is not my fight. It is not a fight for the Republican Party. This campaign does not belong to any one person or group of persons. This is a campaign for the people of the Panhandle, a campaign for honest, Panhandle-oriented representation for our district in Washington. The man from Chevy Chase, Maryland, does not, will not and can not represent our views because he doesn't even know us. You can be sure that the incumbent will say anything, do anything, that he will stop at nothing to promote himself in office. It will be a rough campaign, but we shall win, and in so doing the people of this district shall win."

Mrs. Reed is survived by her husband; her daughter, Mrs. Henderson; two sisters, Mrs. Fannie Reed of Canyon and Mrs. Etter Sadler of Amarillo, and one brother, Henry Baker of Amarillo.

Funeral services for Mrs. Reed were held Friday afternoon at Griggs Chapel in Amarillo. Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon, officiated. E. A. Foster, pastor of the Assembly of God Church in Amarillo, assisted.

Burial was held in Llano Cemetery Friday afternoon. Pallbearers included C. P. Burnett, Pete Burnett, Dick Haynes, Chunky Yelton, Ferris Graham and Bill Prince.

Dick Ziegler Injured In 25-Foot Fall

Richard T. (Dick) Ziegler, 1200 5th Avenue, suffered a broken heel and nose when he fell from a power pole on the old city lake road northwest of Canyon last Thursday afternoon.

Ziegler, 51, a foreman for Southwestern Public Service Co., and Curtis Butler were on a routine field job when Ziegler apparently came in contact with a live wire and lost his grip on the crossarms of the pole.

He fell about 25 feet to the ground and was unconscious when Butler, who had remained near their truck, reached him.

Butler brought the injured man to Neblett Hospital & Clinic.

Ziegler's condition later this week was described as satisfactory.

WT Phone Proposal Shelved

As the result of a student vote, the problem of improving telephone service in West Texas State University dormitories has been tabled for further study, says Dr. Paige Carruth, WT dean of men.

A proposal to provide telephone service in every room of the dormitories recently was voted on by residents. Residents of the women's dormitories voted 298 in favor of the proposal and 233 against it. The vote in the men's dormitories was 373 for and 230 against.

"In our opinion, these are not big enough majorities to justify the proposed system," Dr. Carruth said.

He also emphasized there was no intention of installing any kind of system unless a substantial majority of dormitory residents approved it.

The proposal recently submitted called for a telephone in each dormitory room. The telephones would be handled through a new switchboard which would in effect give the university a private communications system.

With the proposed system, each dormitory student would pay $10 per semester towards cost of the switchboard and extra operating personnel.

At present, dormitory students are paying $3.50 each for telephone service.

Purpose of the proposed system was to eliminate telephone bottlenecks in some of the older dormitories.

Mrs. W.R. Crawford Selects Two Recipes For Readers

BY LORENA MILLER

Mrs. W. R. Crawford selected recipes for Carrot Cake and Ice Box Cherry Delight to share with our readers this week.

Mrs. Crawford was born and raised near Palestine, Texas, where her parents and maternal grandparents were farmers. The former Miss Jewel Mae Williams attended a small rural school that employed two teachers.

Her husband also attended the rural school at Palestine, and his parents were operators of a cotton gin in the community. Following their marriage, September 24, 1921, the young couple moved to Brownfield where they farmed for about three years.

Then they moved to Spearman where they lived for approximately 27 years while Crawford did carpenter work.

Influenced by a wish to allow their four children the opportunity to attend college, the couple moved to Canyon in 1951. They bought a lot at 1206 8th Avenue in Canyon and Crawford, an experienced carpenter, built the family residence.

The two bedroom home features a large living room adjacent to the combination dining room and kitchen. The U-shaped kitchen is complemented with a bronze toned stove that matches the wood finished cabinets. A dining bar partially separates the kitchen from the dining area.

While inspecting the Crawford home, Mrs. Crawford pointed out a scenic picture on the living room wall. The picture was made by her daughter from a section of border printed cloth. It is highlighted with glitter, that outlines the trees, buildings, and people pictured on the print.

Another interesting item that graces the Crawford home is a short pedestal stand-table that was made from a large plow disc and decorated with tiles of white and chocolate brown. The disc supports an orange and brown floral arrangement that was a gift from a houseguest.

Aside from her duties at home, Mrs. Crawford spends a number of spring and summer hours working on the "south 40" as her neighbors call it. The small backyard garden plot is a hobby with Mrs. Crawford, and also provides fresh garden vegetables for her family. She cans and freezes extra garden vegetables for winter use.

"I used to cook a lot more than I do now," commented Mrs. Crawford. "Cooking for the two of us, and sometimes Wayne, doesn't take as much of my time as it did when I had all four of my children at home."

Melvin, eldest of the Crawford's children, completed two years of college training at West Texas State University in Canyon and then entered the Navy when World War II broke out. After four years with the Navy and a discharge as Lieutenant, Melvin returned to Canyon and finished requirements for the bachelor's and master's degrees at the university. Presently he is an office manager and accountant for Producer's Chemical Company in Borger. Melvin and his wife, the former Anna Lois Heard of Pampa, have three sons.

The Crawford's eldest daughter, Lorena, lives in Amarillo where she is employed with a dentist office. Mrs. Yancy, a widow, has two children, a boy and a girl.

Another daughter, Laveta Faye, is married to Harry Campfield, son of the H. E. Campfields of Canyon. They live in Amarillo and have four children.

Wayne Campfield, the youngest child, graduated from Canyon High School and received the BS degree at West Texas State University last spring. He spent the summer with the U.S. Corp. of Engineers in Tulsa, Oklahoma and plans to begin working on his master's degree at WTSU this spring. Not physically able to take active duty with the service, Wayne is classified as a book clerk to be called only in the event of an emergency.

"Pete", a blue feathered parakeet, has been a member of the Crawford family for about six years. The family pet is one of a long succession of parakeets that have made their home with the Crawfords.

"Pete likes to stay in his cage most of the time," says Mrs. Crawford as she noted that other parakeets they have owned were either caught by neighborhood cats or have flown to freedom, when allowed out of the cage.

Mrs. Crawford is known in Canyon as a fine seamstress. She has sewn for the public for about twenty years. A special sewing project which she completed last fall was a wedding dress for her eldest granddaughter.

She likes to spend an occasional afternoon away from home, and often makes a short fishing jaunt out to Buffalo Lake with her friends during warm weather.

The Crawfords are members of the Canyon Church of Christ. Her recipes for Carrot Cake and Ice Box Cherry Delight are listed below:

CARROT CAKE
1 pound carrots, grated fine
1 1/2 cups cooking oil
2 cups sugar
2 cups flour
2 tsp. cinnamon
2 tsp. soda
1 tsp. baking powder
4 eggs
1 tsp. salt
1 cup pecans
Cream cooking oil, sugar and eggs. Sift dry ingredients and combine with creamed mixture, blending well.

2 FFA Boys Attend Show In El Paso

Two Happy Future Farmers of America will spend next week at the El Paso Fat Stock Show.

Jim McManigal and Jim Allison will leave Saturday and show livestock at the annual show in El Paso, Feb. 1-8.

McManigal showed the grand champion barrow at the Swisher County Fat Stock Show last week and Allison showed the reserve breed champion.

McManigal was also first in showmanship in the swine division and Allison was second in showmanship in the same class.

Community Series Set Next Week

Sixth film in the Community Film Series will have the first showing Wednesday night, Feb. 5, in the Olympic Theatre beginning at 7 p.m.

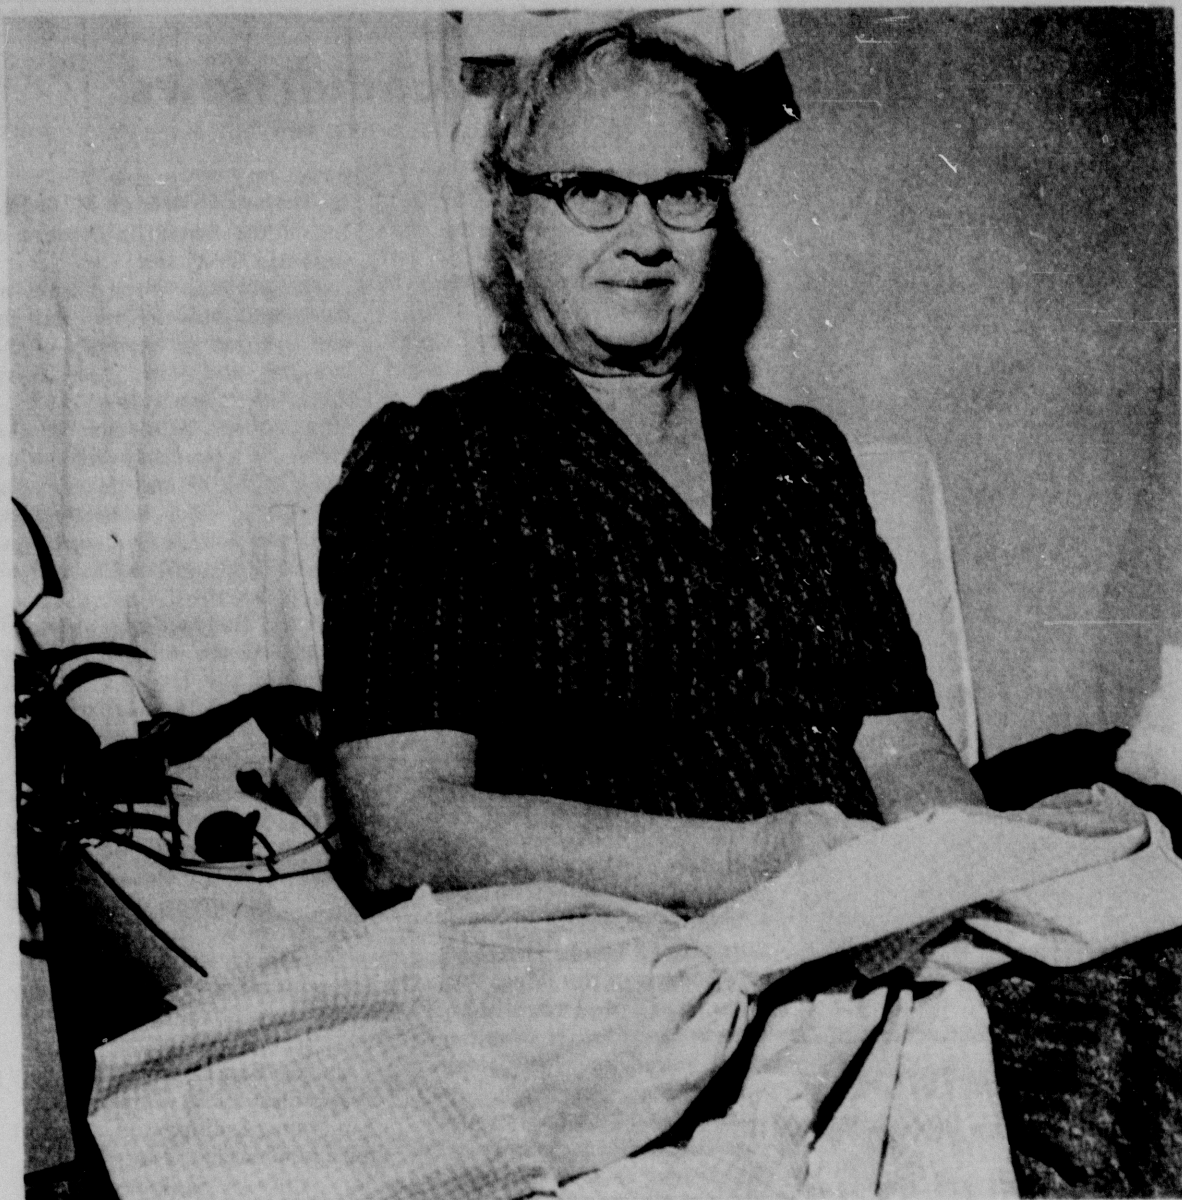

"David and Lisa" was released in 1963 and received high praise from movie critics in the United States and abroad.

Two showings will be given both Wednesday and Thursday nights with a 30-minute short film shown also. The short film will be on the life and writings of Dylan Thomas, famed Welsh poet, and will be narrated by Richard Burton.

The second showing each night will begin at approximately 9:05 p.m.

The next show in the series will be Feb. 19-20 and is entitled "8 1/2".

Admission to the shows will be $1 per person.

Box Cherry Delight with our readers this week. The Crawfords moved to Canyon in 1951. They have four grown children.

Attendance At Museum Shows Gain

Registered visitors at Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum in 1963 numbered slightly less than in 1962, but total attendance is estimated to be about 14 per cent greater, according to Boone McClure, curator.

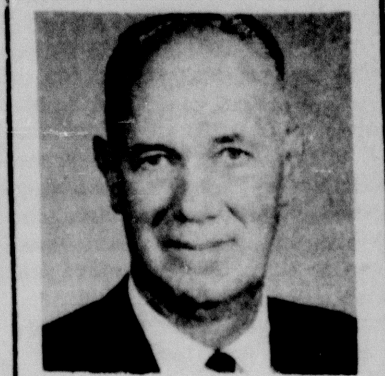

Registered visitors totaled 80,072 last year, as compared with 81,725 in 1962. On the other hand, relocation of the parking area for the museum building has resulted in a substantial increase in non-registered traffic using the rear entrance to the museum, McClure said.

Heaviest attendance was recorded in July, when 10,936 persons visited the museum. Other summer vacation attendance ranged from 10,536 in August to 7,087 in September.

Visitors were registered from 48 states and approximately 50 foreign countries, including such remote places as New Zealand, Vietnam, the Marshall Islands, Indonesia and Rhodesia.

Safety Law Provisions Explained

Randall County Tax Collector, Bill Money, said today his office would begin Monday issuing 1964 automobile registration plates.
